In Ghost-Haunted Land - the first book-length examination of post-Troubles contemporary art - Declan Long highlights artists who have reflected on the ongoing anxieties of aftermath. This wide-ranging study addresses developments in video, photography, painting, sculpture, performance and more, offering detailed analyses of key works by artists based in Ireland and beyond - including 2014 Turner Prize winner Duncan Campbell and internationally acclaimed filmmaker and photographer Willie Doherty.

Manchester University Press - Ghost-haunted land

'Ghost-Haunted Land is a foundational work of art criticism that will stand alongside Colin Graham's study of photography and the North as a first point of reference for anyone interested in the Troubles and their cultural legacies.'
